International Plant Production Society 54th Conference

Seeds of Success Hobart 2026

Old Woolstore Apartments & Hotel

Pre-conference tour Saturday 23 May to Tuesday 26 May

Get ready to explore some of Tasmania's most iconic spots! Derwent Valley, Mt Field National Park, the Peninsula, and the Tasman Island boat tour, and industry-based tours and visits along the way.

Conference Tuesday 26 May 2026 to Friday 29 May

Alongside exciting tours and hands-on experiences, we've lined up dynamic presentations from leading experts in genetics, biosecurity, breeding, and more. Whether you're passionate about horticultural science or just keen to learn, these sessions promise fresh insights and thought-provoking discussions. The week kicks off on Tuesday evening with a reception at Government House, followed by hands-on demos on Wednesday and a mix of inspiring speakers and industry tours on Thursday and Friday.

Registrations open 1 January 2026
